A Note from Kim Kuhlman Photography

Dear National Participants,

First, congratulations on getting here! The National Championship and Kim Kuhlman photography will provide you a free 5"x7" portrait for each participating dog. We will only be taking portraits during the Training Day and the first two days of the trial, so that we can get you the prints before you leave. Details on the location for training day portraits and water entry pictures will be posted at the training site and at the hotel.

If you did not receive your portrait from last year's National Field Trials, please see Kim Kuhlman as early as possible so that we can get this to you before you leave as well. We sincerely apologize for any missed portraits last year. This year's restriction of portrait days is due to our not being able to get all the portraits done while also taking pictures through the final day of the trial.

Thanks for your understanding and

GOOD LUCK!!
